TMB Appoints New Chief Retail Banking Officer (CRBO)

TMB has appointed Mrs. Marie Ramlie as Chief Retail Banking Officer, effective from August 1, 2019. Marie succeeds Roel Huisman who has completed his tenure with TMB on July 31, 2019.

Marie has joined TMB as Head of Retail Products since 2013. She was additionally appointed as TMBAM Board Director in 2014. Her accomplishments at TMB are demonstrated by steady retail product market expansion and strong bottom-line growth which have originated from the new transactional, deposit, lending, bancassurance and mutual fund product offering designed to serve unmet needs of customers and create more value. During her tenure as Head of Retail Products, major changes were implemented to TMB investment offer; one of them being TMB Open Architecture, creating an opportunity for all group of investors to have access to select quality mutual funds from various fund houses through a Thai bank for the first time in the country; another one being a flexible Unit-Linked offer added to the insurance selection to support Thai investors in building their long term wealth development needs. With her extensive experience, accomplishments and deep understanding of TMB Make THE Difference corporate philosophy, Marie has been entrusted with the enlarged scope of responsibility as the new TMB Chief Retail Banking Officer.

Marie has more than 20 years of working experience in the banking sector. Prior to joining TMB, she was Vice President, Products and Distribution Channels of ING Direct France where she joined since 2002 as Advertising and Communication Director.
