

Twitch Returns to Thailand Game Show and Announces New Marketing Executive

Bangkok - November, 2017 - Social video service Twitch announced its return to Thailand Game Show, details surrounding its booth (booth #G4), and appoint of a new Director of Marketing in Southeast Asia. Highlights at Thailand Game Show include a live broadcast featuring popular content creators and notable games from the show, a Meet & Greet Zone where attendees can get autographs from top Twitch personalities, and sponsored activities from Intel, Lenovo, Acer, DXRacer, Red Bull, and Corsair. Fans can tune into Twitch's mainstage broadcasts here: www.twitch.tv/twitchth.

Twitch is also proud to announce that Ferdinand Gutierrez has joined as Director of Marketing in Southeast Asia to increase the company's commitment to the region. Ferdinand is based in Thailand and will be responsible for event marketing and operations, as well as connecting the Thai and greater Southeast Asian audience with Twitch, its content creators, and community. Ferdinand comes to Twitch from Havas Media Group where he served as CEO, and Neo@Ogilvy where he served as General Manager. Ferdinand is also the Founder of Sandbox Global, Southeast Asia's premiere social gaming company.

"We saw overwhelming enthusiasm surrounding our Thailand Game Show presence last year and a growing number of creators and viewers, all of which has inspired us to strengthen our commitment to the Thai community," said Ferdinand Gutierrez. "Our mission this year is to not only support our content creators locally, but also show how Twitch is the most effective medium for reaching the Millennial and Generation Z audiences. We also want to help brands within and outside gaming navigate how to use our community and interactive tools to reach these audiences."

The following is an overview of what Thailand Game Show attendees and Twitch fans can experience at the booth and online:

The Main Stage
