

Unithai Shipyard has continuously earned CSR Award for sixth consecutive year

Unithai Shipyard has continuously received a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Award from the Ministry of Industry, for sixth consecutive year, testifying to its commitment to place high emphasis on social responsibility in all aspects of operational practices. The core idea is to strive for mutual sustainable development through sound organisational governance, recognition of human rights, honourable operating and labour practices, attention to the environment and consumer issues, and community involvement and development.

The award presentation has taken place at IMPACT Muangthong Thani, Bangkok, Mr. Teerapon Udomkanjananan, Managing Director of Unithai Shipyard, has represented the company in receiving the award. From a thousand of industries nationwide, there are only 368 industrial enterprises that could achieve the award this year.