VERY BERRY HEALTHY HIGH TEA TIME

A merry assortment of sun-ripened berries surrenders their sweet and tart antioxidant-abounding juices to the ingenuity of Zest Bar & Terrace's passionate patisserie chefs. Moreover, throughout this January and February, they pamper the palates and reduce the free-radical counts of afternoon revelers at the deluxe uptown lounge.

Berries are, after all, bright, flavorful, sweet 'n' sour superfruits with several human health benefits. Indeed, the colorful collections are not only high in antioxidants but also in disease-fighting polyphenols.

Enticingly interlacing sweet and savory dainties in shades of pink, red, black and blue, the raspberries, strawberries, cranberries, blueberries, and mulberries on Zest Bar & Terrace's new "Very Berry High Tea Time" menu make lite of richly savory French duck terrine, Parma ham, goat's cheese, smoked turkey, and mascarpone. Moreover, they take white chocolate trifle, mango cheesecake, meringue, hazelnut and vanilla bean scones and clotted cream to the sweetest seventh heaven.
