

Volvo Trucks starts Fuelwatch competition 2015

Volvo Trucks starts Fuelwatch competition 2015

Volvo Trucks Thailand recently held a press conference announcing Volvo Trucks' Fuelwatch competition 2015 to promote the driving of safety and fuel efficiency. Volvo Trucks has organized the competition in Thailand for six consecutive years and this year the fuel efficient driving competition jointly promoted by the Ministry of Energy, Michelin Siam Company Limited and Heil Trailer Asia Company Limited.

Now Volvo Trucks starts the registration and only Volvo Trucks drivers enable to apply for the competition and interested drivers are welcome to ask for more information at Volvo Trucks Thailand call center 02 305 4432 download the application form at <http://www.volvotrucks.com/trucks/thailand-market/th-th>. The winner for Thailand round is the only one who win the ticket to compete APAC Final Fuelwatch competition 2015 which this year Thailand will host the competition encouraging Thailand will have two fuel efficient competitions this year. Seen Mr. Jacques Michel (center), President of Volvo Group (Thailand) Co., Ltd, chaired the press conference in together with Mr. Ian Sinclair (2nd left), Director Product Management of Volvo Group Trucks Asia Sales, Mr. William J. Grininstool (far left), managing director of Heil Trailer, Mr. Nattaphon Jarusmankij (2nd right), OE & Retread Director, East Asia & Oceania of Michelin ROH, and Mrs. Wilawan Vispapaew, Vice President Marketing and Sales Support Volvo Group Thailand Co.,Ltd.